

ant time in Van Alstyne, the people were very benevolent and strained every nerve to make things pleasant for them. They also enjoyed a pleasant stay at Sherman, Many students now are influenced to attend Texas College by the concerts. The boys are all grateful to Dr. McKinney of Denison for arranging things so wonderful for them in Denison. The people of Bonham are still talking of the two concerts given there they are begging that they come to them again before school opens in order to appear at the Court house. A few white friends came to the program and were pleased very much. The play "The Man and the Job," is receiving much praise and comment. The quartette has the name of being the best one in the State Members: H. D. English, planist; and student manager; C. M. Stewart, let tenor; D. Madlock, 2nd tenor; H. Owens baritone; C. E. Booker, bass. They plan to make all Sunday School conventions.
